

Dylan Curran

Objective

To obtain a summer internship in the engineering field that will allow me to utilize my education while gaining valuable work experience.

Experience

6/2016 – Present

Target

East Greenbush, NY

Cashier

- Handle money, serve customers quickly, and proactively help customers when needed
- Deal with upset and distraught customers politely and respectfully
- Control and de-escalate situations with potential theft of store property
- Actively promote the Target debit card while talking with the customers

4/2011 – Present

Self Employed

East Greenbush, NY

eBay Seller

- Sell collectible items over the internet and ship through the mail
- Communicate with potential customers and have strong customer service on a daily basis
- Manage money and track payment status; Top-Rated Seller with over 1000 successful transactions

5/2013 – 6/2015

East Greenbush-Castleton Little League

Troy, NY

Umpire (2013)/Concessions Stand Cashier (2013-2015)

- Umpire - Supervise, guide and educate young children
- Umpire - Communicate with angry parents and fans in a calm and respectful manner
- Cashier - Manage money, serve customers quickly and provide respectful service

Education

Current

Manhattan College Bronx, NY

- Civil Engineering major, sophomore year
- Planning for a Math minor
- Basic AutoCAD, VBA, fluent in MS Word and Excel
- Overall GPA – 3.61

Activities

- Tae Kwon Do – 2nd degree Black Belt
- Cornerstone Community Church volunteer (liturgist, church-run thrift shop worker, charity dinner waiter)
- Member of the Manhattan College St. LaSalle Honor Society
- Participant in the Manhattan College Mentor Program